

Dave Abel

Co-Founder, Prime Vector

Throughout a career at IBM, PricewaterhouseCoopers, and as an entrepreneur and angel investor, Dave Abel has established, developed, and managed complex businesses on a global scale.

At Prime Vector, Dave draws on his experience working with senior and mid-level leaders to create and adopt key management strategies to help companies reach their potential by optimizing strategic focus, exceptional operations, acquisitions, and investment.

Dave helps organizations in private and public sectors use innovative digital technologies such as RPA (Robotic Process Automation) and AI (Artificial Intelligence).

Dave is a proud alumnus of the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia and serves on the advisory board for the Kogod School of Management at American University.
